ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST NEWS

Remembrance Sunday

On a beautiful autumn morning the village again came together to recognise the ultimate sacrifice paid by so many in conflicts over the last century. A large crowd stood in silence as the names of the fallen were read out. Those laying wreaths on behalf of the village and its institutions were joined by representatives from the Royal Navy, Alnmouth Army Veterans, RAF Boulmer, the Police and Scouts. The Beavers and Squirrels laid wreaths that they had made themselves - poignant gesture from the next generation.
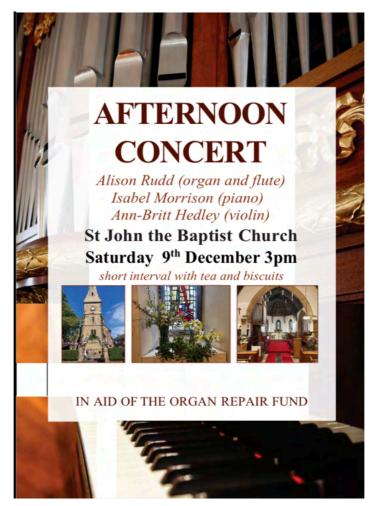

It was lovely to welcome Amber and Ruby into St John the Baptist church at the end of October to celebrate their baptism, with family and friends.

As we prepare for the season of Advent,
may the anticipation of a new beginning fill our
hearts with hope,
the quiet moments of reflection deepen our faith,
and the joyous celebrations remind us of the love
that binds us together.
Amen.
